

Alternative Dispute Resolution Section Report 2021-2022

The ADR Section has had an exciting year. We have a new Executive consisting of Kasia Kieloch, Professor Jennifer Schulz, and Rachael Minuk. Our Section has over 200 members from various practice areas.

The ADR Section hosted the following webinar events in for the 2021-2022 year:

- On February 25, 2022, the ADR Section hosted a webinar titled “ADR Training in Manitoba: A Discussion with ADRIM” with David Falk as the guest speaker.
- On March 7, 2022, the ADR Section hosted a webinar titled “Innovative Dispute Resolution: The Civil Resolution Tribunal” with Kandis McCall as the guest speaker.
- On May 9, 2022, the ADR Section hosted a joint Section webinar with the Legal Research Section and Labour and Employment Law Section. The webinar was titled “Legal Research and Practice Tips for Mediations and Informal Proceedings in the Labour and Employment Law Context”. The guest speakers were Karine Pelletier, Jeff Palamar, and Dayna Steinfeld.

The MBA ADR Section continues to work collaboratively with the Canadian Bar Association ADR Section. Kasia Kieloch and Jennifer Schulz both sit on the CBA ADR Section Executive. On April 20, 2022, Jennifer Schulz presented at a webinar titled “Mediation Case Law Update” for the CBA ADR Section.

Moving forward, our Section is looking forward to growing our Executive and hosting more events.

Submitted by,

Kasia Kieloch, Chair, MBA Alternative Dispute Resolution Section