

Civil Litigation Section Report 2020-2021

The section has been busy!

At the Mid-Winter, the Civil Litigation Section presented a session on self-represented litigants (ethics and professionalism). Presenters were Her Ladyship Justice Greenberg, Bill Gange and Vivian Li.

April 19, 2021 – the Civil Litigation Section and the Construction & Infrastructure Law Section jointly presented a session on limitation periods in construction litigation. Presenters were Jon Woolley and Mike Weinstein.

May 12, 2021 – the Civil Litigation Section and the Municipal Law Section jointly presented a session on procedure and appeals before the Municipal Board and the Land Value Appraisal Commission

May 13, 2021 – the Civil Litigation Section and the Administrative Law Section jointly presented a session on arbitrations and appeals. Presenters were the Honourable Thomas Cromwell (former SCC Judge) and Anne Wallace, renowned Saskatchewan Arbitrator.

The Civil Litigation Section is currently planning a session for the fall with all 3 Chief Justices speaking to “a year in COVID-19: where we were, where we are, and where we are going”. This is intended to be an address to the profession on how the court systems have evolved and overcome a very challenging and profoundly impactful pandemic situation.

Submitted by,
Kalyn Bombach, Chair, MBA Civil Litigation Section