

Aboriginal Law Section Report 2019-2020

On October 18, 2019, in association with the Rotary Club of Winnipeg, we hosted and moderated a CPD event on the topic of the “Indigenous Peacemaking Project” with the following speakers:

- Justice Megan Cavanagh, Michigan Supreme Court;
- Former Justice Michael Cavanagh;
- Brett Shelton, Native American Rights Fund.

On January 23, 2020, we hosted and moderated a panel presentation at the MBA’s annual Mid-Winter Conference entitled: Reconciliation: What’s Law Got to Do with It?

Speakers were:

- Aimée Craft, Assistant Professor, Faculty of Law, University of Ottawa;
- Tanya Kappo, Kappo Hildebrand LLP;
- Chief Justice Glenn Joyal of the Manitoba Court of Queen’s Bench.

On January 30, 2020, in co-ordination with the Law Society of Manitoba and the Manitoba Indigenous Law Students’ Association we co-hosted the second annual Building Connections event, which has been developed as a semi-formal networking event for Indigenous law students and members of the Manitoba Bar practicing in a variety of different practice areas

Submitted by,
Jared Wheeler, Co-Chair, MBA Aboriginal Law Section